

Golf Memberships

are available

Lane Cove Country Club is the home of a great little Golf Club. The course is nine holes, with two additional greens and tees on a round of 18. Having an affiliation with The Australian Golf Union, as a member you get an official handicap, which allows you to play in competitions on any other AGU affiliated course. There is no waiting time if you want to play in the competition and improve your handicap.

If you play a round 25 times a year, you begin to make savings on green fees. If you choose to play outside competition times, for full golf club members, green fees are half price from dawn to sunset Monday to Friday. There is a pro shop and personal tuition is available. Not to mention a cool and comfortable '19th Hole'.

On River Road Northwood
Your can even enjoy a quiet lunch or evening meal
